

Aide In Wasatch Retires Monday

HEBER CITY—William J. He was an instructor in drafting.

Bond, Wasatch County commissioner for the past 10 years, will retire from this post Monday. Elmo A. Jacobson (R) incumbent commissioner and Don L. Hicken (D) will be sworn in at 9 a.m. by Wayne C. Whitling, county clerk.

Mr. Bond

Mr. Bond has been actively engaged in public services for the past 48 years. He started his teaching career while still attending the Wasatch High School in Heber City.

At the age of 19, he was called on a mission for The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints to Texas and Oklahoma. Along with his proselyting, he taught school for three years in the mission field. On returning home, he taught school in Midway, Wasatch County, for a year.

He graduated from the Utah State Agricultural College and during World War I, enlisted and received the rank of sergeant in the 98th Balloon Company at Camp John Wise, Tex.

Superintendent William J. Bond

WILLIAM J. BOND

Democratic Candidate for

4-YEAR

County Commissioner

